OUR STORY

We know the importance of your horse's health and success. Over 75 years ago, in LaSalle, Colorado, we began our company with a passion for excellence in equine nutrition. Today, we continue to manufacture our products in our own facility, ensuring every step of the process delivers the freshest, highest quality product at the best value.

Formula 707 Calming Pellets are a show-safe way to reduce nervous energy in your horse. Use daily to create a safer, more productive foundation for training and handling. Calming Pellets are formulated to provide support for a balanced nervous system.
